Monthly Satellite Bible Study – 1 John

Since February is the month when "love is in the air," we'll study the New Testament book that's often been considered God's love letter to his people. John was the disciple that Jesus loved and he wrote much about that topic. Lyle and Marti Schmidt are hosting this evening's study – 7088 Old 57 Rd., Greenleaf.

the Ave Student Ministries

The second of two meetings in the winter session is this Wednesday. The Ave is sponsored by a few different local WELS pastors and gives high school students opportunities to listen to music by the youth band, enjoy some Christian fellowship, and (of course) to engage in Bible study and discussion. Meetings are held at Copper Rock Coffee, College Ave., Appleton, from 6:30 – 8:00 pm. Carpooling may be available – speak with Pastor Gehl. Zaine Gehl can give you all the details about the meetings.

Mysterious Marriage Online Bible Studies

Have you been following along on Wednesday evenings? If you've missed the first two studies – or haven't found the time to watch them yet – don't give up. Even though the studies are streamed live at 6pm or 8pm, they're recorded and archived so you can watch at any time. WELS Pastor Randy Hunter has led many marriage enrichment seminars and is leading the studies. This would be a great way for married or soon-to-be married couples to study and grow together in God's Word to provide a strong biblical foundation to their marriage. Go to wels.net and click on the banner image on the homepage for the "Interactive Faith." Study guides are also available to download.
